Last Day of School

The end of the school year is coming up fast! The last day of school is June 24. Have a safe and happy summer! Student schedules are not yet finalized and could change at any time. All schedules are finalized at the start of the new school year. Parents or students needing more information about timetables should contact their school, when it reopens in late August. If you are unsure this message is about it's because this is filler content that with no assemblance of meaning. You should stop reading as it will give you no information whatsoever of what life is or the direction you should take going forward. From here on out, it's all you.
