

Announcement of New Principal

The Board of Directors is very pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Wes Malo as the new Principal of the Calgary Girls' School.

Wes brings considerable experience as a collaborative leader who builds capacity to meet the needs of all learners. He is keenly interested in technology that supports teaching and learning, especially in the STEM content areas. Wes has a proven track record of strategic and innovative thinking. He is recognized for his ability to build strong relationships and formalize effective partnerships that strengthen programs. Most recently he served as Acting Superintendent of Schools for the Stoney Education Authority where he oversaw four schools serving over 1,000 students.

Experience and passion make Wes the ideal candidate to ensure the Calgary Girls School realizes its vision to be a centre of excellence in enabling girls and young women to become confident and innovative leaders in a complex and global world.

Wes will officially assume the role of Principal effective school opening August 2017. Meanwhile the transition will begin immediately. Both the Superintendent and Acting Principal are working to ensure that Wes has the resources he needs to hit the ground running and that his arrival is as smooth as possible.

The Board's Hiring Committee led the search which considered input from staff, students, and parents as gathered through the Accountability Pillar Results, Speak Out events, and interview data. We believe Wes will continue to build on our reputation for excellence and innovation in education that fosters confident, competent, and connected girls.
