Announcement - Christine Jackson Board Chair - June 2021

The Calgary Girls Charter School Board of Directors had its organizational meeting for the 2021-2022 school year on June 13th, 2021 and the Board is pleased to announce the appointment of Christine Jackson as the Board Chair.

Christine is a passionate leader as the Director for Western Canada at SAS Institute (Canada), heading business development and sales teams as well as overall strategy for the region. With deep experience in the software and technology industry through R&D and Consulting, Christine spends her days collaborating with customers in various industries for solutions such as artificial intelligence/machine learning, cloud analytics, data management, and visualization. She also has a global mandate, servicing customers throughout North America and Europe, and is the practice lead for advanced analytics solutions in risk management for energy, agriculture, and utility companies.

She holds an Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree in International Business from Carleton University and Christine is nearing the completion of a Master of Business Administration in Management Analytics at the University of Calgary.

As a director with the CGCS Board of Directors for the past four years, Christine served as Vice Chair for 2020-2021 and as a leader in her field, she embodies the values of CGCS.

Christine, is a proud alumna of the first graduating class of Calgary Girls Charter School, and is an inspiring role model who brings a unique perspective to the Board of Directors.
