

POLICY 17 STUDENT TRANSPORTATION

Approved: September 2014

Amended:

Reviewed: April 2023 Due 2024-2025

The Charter Board assumes responsibility to establish and provide appropriate levels of service for the transportation of eligible students.

Specifically

- The Charter Board will facilitate transportation services to eligible students, in accordance with the Funding Manual for School Authorities, and in support of its philosophy of encouraging choice among schools.
- 2. Every effort is to be made to recover all transportation service expenditures through provincial transportation grants and student transportation fees.
- 3. Student transportation fees will be approved annually by the Charter Board.
- 4. Students eligible for transportation may qualify for financial assistance as determined by the Superintendent.
